ACTION TAKEN REPORT ON TEACHER FEEDBACK

Q1 Curriculum Content is Adequate to impart foundation learning outcomes?

While the data is positive, it might be beneficial to conduct further investigations, such as surveys, focus groups, or interviews, to gain more qualitative insights into specific aspects of the curriculum that are perceived as effective.

Consider forming a committee or task force to regularly review and update the curriculum based on emerging educational trends, technological advancements, and feedback from stakeholders.

Although there are no respondents who disagree, it's important to remain open to concerns or suggestions that may arise in the future. Create channels for continuous feedback to address any emerging issues promptly.

Q2 Subjects are arranged in proper sequence throughout the 5 year/3 year program ?

It appears that 47.1% of respondents strongly agree and 47.1% agree that subjects are arranged in a proper sequence throughout the 5-year/3-year program. As we are affiliated from university of Jammu, we have to run our curriculum as per the University of Jammu.

Q3 Adequate learning resources and ICT Facilities available in the college aid in delivering the curriculum?

It seems that a majority of respondents, 76.4% (52.9% agree and 23.5% strongly agree), believe that adequate learning resources and ICT facilities available in the college contribute positively to delivering the curriculum. This indicates a generally positive perception among the surveyed individuals about the impact of these resources on the educational experience. Institutions may find these results useful for reinforcing their commitment to providing adequate learning resources and maintaining or improving ICT facilities to enhance the overall educational experience for students.

Q4 Curriculum is updated regularly ?

It appears that a majority of respondents (88.2% when combining Strongly Agree and Agree) agree that the curriculum is updated regularly. This suggests a positive perception or acknowledgment of the regular updating of the curriculum among those who participated in the survey or provided these responses.

Q5 The curriculum enhance professional skills and academic knowledge of the students ?

The results indicate that a significant majority of respondents (94.2% when combining Strongly Agree and Agree) believe that the curriculum effectively enhances both professional skills and academic knowledge of the students. This suggests a positive perception among those who participated in the survey or provided these responses regarding the curriculum's impact on students' development.

Q6 Syllabus is sufficient to bridge the gap between professional skills and academic knowledge ?

The results indicate that a significant majority of respondents believe that the curriculum is sufficient to bridge between professional skills and academic knowledge and enhances both professional skills and academic knowledge of the students.

Q7 The objective of the syllabus are well defined ?

The majority of respondents either strongly agree or agree that the objectives of the syllabus are well defined, with a combined percentage of 94.8%. This indicates a high level of consensus among the respondents regarding the clarity and definition of the syllabus objectives.

Q8 Timely coverage of the Syllabus is possible within the given teaching hours ?

The majority of respondents either strongly agree or agree that timely coverage of the syllabus is possible within the given teaching hours, with a combined percentage of 94.1%. This suggests that a significant portion of the respondents are optimistic about the feasibility of covering the syllabus within the allocated teaching hours. The teachers perform effortlessly to complete the syllabus on time.

Q9 College has given teachers autonomy to adopt new techniques/Strategies of teaching?

The responses indicate that 52.9% strongly agree, and 41.2% agree. This suggests that a majority of respondents believe that the college supports teachers in adopting new teaching techniques or strategies. Teachers used best methods and techniques for delivering lectures.

Q10 Recommended text books and reference are available in the library?

58.8%% of respondents strongly agree, and 41.2% agree that the library is adequately equipped with recommended text books and reference books .

Q11 The Library is adequately equipped with different learning resources including books, journals, E-resources ?

64.7% of respondents agree, and 35.3% strongly agree that the library is adequately equipped with various learning resources, including books, journals, and e-resources. The institution should increase their efforts to upgrade more e-resources .

Q12 The Examination and Evaluation system followed by the college is effective and fair in judging students academic performance ?

It seems that a majority of respondents (94.2%) either strongly agree or agree that the Examination and Evaluation system followed by the college is effective and fair in judging students' academic performance. It's worth noting that there are no responses indicating disagreement or a neutral stance.

ACTION TAKEN REPORT ON STUDENT SURVEY FEEDBACK FORM

Q2. Curriculum is sufficient to make your mind analytical to handle situations successful at workplace

56.3% strongly agree: This suggests that a majority of respondents strongly believe that the curriculum is effective in making their minds analytical for handling workplace situations. This is a positive indication that a significant portion of the participants finds the curriculum beneficial.

21.6% agree: While not as strong as the "strongly agree" category, this percentage still adds to the overall positive sentiment. A combined total of 77.9% (56.3% + 21.6%) agree or strongly agree, which indicates a substantial portion of respondents expressing a positive view.

18.2% not agree: This suggests that a minority of respondents do not believe that the curriculum is sufficient to make their minds analytical for successful handling of workplace situations. While the percentage is lower, it's still important to consider the concerns or opinions of this group.

In summary, the majority of respondents have a positive view of the curriculum's effectiveness in developing analytical skills for workplace situations. However, it's essential to consider the feedback from those who do not agree, as their perspectives may highlight areas for improvement or alternative approaches to meet diverse learning needs.

Q3. Rate the appropriateness of the sequence of the courses provided in the curriculum?

6.1% rate it as "Excellent": This indicates a notable portion of respondents find the sequence of courses to be exceptionally well-structured and appropriate.

37.5% rate it as "Very Good": A significant majority of participants consider the sequence of courses to be very good, which further supports the positive assessment.

27.8% rate it as "Good": Another substantial portion of respondents views the sequence of courses as good, adding to the overall positive sentiment.

The combined percentage of participants who rated the curriculum as "Excellent" or "Very Good" is 43.6%, which indicates a strong majority with a positive assessment. Additionally, when including those who rated it as "Good," the overall positive perception increases to 71.4%.

Q4. Rate the adequateness of the textbooks and reference books mentioned in the courses.?

Here's a breakdown of the responses:

Excellent (38.6%): This is the highest percentage, indicating a substantial number of respondents find the textbooks and reference books to be of exceptionally high quality.

Amalendu Kumar
Principal
Deemed to be University
Rajshree Education Society

Very Good (31.1%): A significant portion of respondents also considers the materials to be very good, reflecting a positive assessment of the adequacy and effectiveness of the chosen resources.

Good (21.2%): While not the majority, a sizable proportion still rates the textbooks and reference books as good. This suggests that there may be room for improvement or variation in opinions among the respondents.

In summary, the majority of respondents have a positive view of the materials, with a considerable percentage rating them as excellent or very good. However, it's crucial to consider the specific context, course requirements, and individual preferences when evaluating the adequateness of textbooks and reference books.

Q5 How do you rate the use of innovative teaching methods in the classroom?

It seems like the majority of respondents (67.15%) view the use of innovative teaching methods positively. Specifically:

27.3% rate it as excellent.

30.1% rate it as very good.

26.75% rate it as good.

This suggests that a significant portion of the surveyed individuals appreciates and values the incorporation of innovative teaching methods in the classroom. However, it's worth noting that 12.1% of respondents find it average, indicating that there is still a portion of the population that may not be fully convinced or satisfied with the current level of innovation in teaching methods. Understanding the reasons behind different perceptions and continually adapting teaching strategies based on feedback can contribute to ongoing improvement in educational practices.

Q6 How do you find the current assessment / examination system?

It seems like the assessment/examination system you mentioned has received positive feedback overall. Here's a breakdown of the responses:

Very Good: 30.1%

Good: 27.3%

Excellent: 26.7%

Combining the percentages of "Very Good," "Good," and "Excellent," it appears that a significant majority, 84.1%, find the current assessment/examination system to be positive. However, it's important to note that these percentages only represent the opinions of those surveyed and might not reflect the views of the entire population. Public opinion on assessment systems can vary based on factors such as educational background, personal experiences, and cultural differences. Additionally, the effectiveness of an assessment system can be subjective and may depend on various factors, including the goals of the education system and the needs of the students.

Q7: How do you experience regarding the completion of the syllabus?

It seems that the majority of respondents (26.4% + 27.3% + 29.5% = 83.2%) have positive views on the completion of the syllabus, with 27.3% even rating it as excellent. This suggests that a significant portion of the respondents is satisfied or very satisfied with the progress in completing the syllabus. On the other hand, 11.9% rated it as average, indicating that there is a smaller percentage of respondents who might have a more neutral opinion or find the completion of the syllabus neither particularly good nor bad.

Q8: How do you rate the college initiatives in promoting placements, internships, field visit opportunities for students?

It seems like the majority of respondents (73.7%) have a positive view of the college initiatives in promoting placements, internships, and field visit opportunities for students. Specifically:

Excellent: 23.3%

Very Good: 33.3%

Good: 26.1%

This indicates that nearly 73% of the respondents believe that the college is doing well or very well in providing opportunities for placements, internships, and field visits. However, it's important to address the concerns of those who rated it as average (11.9%) or poor (15.3%). It might be valuable for the college administration to gather feedback from students, understand the reasons behind the lower ratings, and work towards improvements in these areas. Continuous assessment and enhancement of such initiatives are crucial for ensuring a positive and supportive educational environment.

Q9: How do you experience regarding the participation in co-curricular activities like seminars and guest lectures?

It seems that a significant portion of respondents (35.8%) find their participation in co-curricular activities like seminars and guest lectures to be excellent. Another substantial group (23.4%) rates their experience as very good. Additionally, 26.1% say it's good.

These positive responses suggest that a majority of individuals participating in such activities are satisfied or highly satisfied. The diversity in responses may indicate that people have varied experiences and perceptions of co-curricular activities, with some finding them excellent, very good, or just good. Overall, it appears that co-curricular activities are generally well-received by a majority of participants.

Q10: How helpful is the mentor-mentee(guardian teacher) system in making students realize their strengths and development needs?

The mentor-mentee or guardian-teacher system can be highly beneficial in helping students realize their strengths and development needs. The survey results you provided suggest that a significant percentage of respondents view the system positively.

Arshad Ali
Principal
Ganga Lal College
Bans, Bahadranagar, Gurgaon

36.9% say it is excellent.

29.5% say it is good.

26.1% say it is very good.

These percentages indicate that a substantial majority (92.5%) of respondents have positive perceptions of the system.

Q11 How do you appreciate the extension activities like legal aid in providing student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies for enhancing learning experience ?

It appears that a significant majority of respondents (34% - 29% 'very good' and 23% 'excellent') appreciate the extension activities, particularly legal aid, for providing student-centric methods like experiential learning, participative learning, and problem-solving methodologies. This positive feedback suggests that these activities are effective in enhancing the learning experience.

Q12 How do you find the library timings and circulation facility?

Here's an analysis of the data:

Excellent (34.1%): This is the highest percentage, indicating that a significant portion of respondents find the library timings and circulation facility to be of excellent quality. This suggests a high level of satisfaction among this group.

Very Good (26.1%): The second-highest percentage falls in the 'very good' category. This also suggests a positive sentiment, although not as strong as the excellent category.

Good (29.5%): A substantial percentage of respondents find the library timings and circulation facility to be good. While not rated as excellent or very good, it still suggests a generally positive perception.

Average (9.1%): The lowest percentage falls in the 'average' category. This indicates that a smaller portion of respondents views the library timings and circulation facility as just average. It might be worthwhile to explore reasons behind this perception to identify areas for improvement.

Overall, the majority of respondents (combined percentages of excellent, very good, and good) seem to have a positive view of the library timings and circulation facility. The feedback from the average category could be used to pinpoint specific areas that may need attention or improvement. Additionally, it would be beneficial to gather more qualitative feedback to understand the specific aspects that users appreciate or find lacking.

Q13 How are the internet and reading room facilities in the library ?

Here's an analysis based on the provided percentages:

Very Good (20.5%): The highest percentage of respondents rated the internet and reading room facilities as very good. This suggests a significant portion of users is satisfied with the quality of these services.

Excellent (23.9%): The second-highest percentage falls in the excellent category, indicating a substantial level of satisfaction. Users who rated it as excellent likely find the internet and reading room facilities to be of high quality.

Good (22.2%): A notable percentage of respondents rated the facilities as good. While not as high as very good or excellent, this still indicates a positive sentiment among this group.

Average (19.9%): The lowest percentage falls in the average category. This suggests that a portion of respondents views the internet and reading room facilities as just average. Exploring the reasons behind this perception can help identify areas for improvement.

Overall, the majority of respondents (combined percentages of very good, excellent, and good) seem to have a positive view of the internet and reading room facilities. Like with the average category, further investigation into specific feedback can provide valuable insights for enhancing these facilities and addressing any concerns raised by users.

Q14 What is the utility value of e-resources and reference materials provided in the library?

Let's break down the percentages:

Very Good (28.4%): This indicates that a significant portion of respondents finds the e-resources and reference materials to be highly beneficial and effective in meeting their information needs.

Excellent (25%): Another substantial percentage considers the resources to be of excellent quality, suggesting a high level of satisfaction with the provided materials.

Good (35.2%): The majority of respondents perceive the resources as good, indicating that they find them useful, though perhaps not exceptional.

Average (8.3%): A smaller percentage of respondents feel that the e-resources and reference materials are only average in terms of utility. This group may have more neutral or mixed opinions about the effectiveness of the provided materials.

In summary, the overall feedback suggests a positive reception of the e-resources and reference materials, with a significant percentage rating them very good or excellent. This indicates that the library is generally meeting the information needs of its users and providing valuable resources. However, it's also important to consider any specific comments or feedback provided by respondents to gain a deeper understanding of areas that might need improvement or further enhancement.

Q15 What is your opinion about the availability of prescribed books and journals in the library?

Given the feedback provided, it appears that the majority of respondents have a positive opinion about the availability of prescribed books and journals in the library. Here's an overview of the percentages:

Excellent (41.7%): A significant portion of respondents considers the availability of prescribed books and journals to be excellent. This suggests a high level of satisfaction with the accessibility and range of materials offered.

Very Good (37%): Another substantial percentage rates the availability as very good. This reinforces the positive sentiment and indicates that a significant number of users find the collection of prescribed books and journals to be highly satisfactory.

Good (27.3%): While a smaller percentage, the fact that over a quarter of respondents still rate the availability as good is positive. This suggests that, overall, the majority of users have favorable opinions about the library's collection of prescribed materials.

In summary, the feedback implies that the library is doing well in providing access to the prescribed books and journals, with a large portion of users expressing satisfaction. It would be beneficial to analyze any specific comments or suggestions provided by respondents to identify potential areas for improvement or enhancement. Overall, these positive ratings suggest that the library is effectively meeting the needs of its users in terms of the availability of essential academic resources.

Q16 To what extent does the library cater to your research needs?

Here's an analysis of the percentages:

Excellent (27.3%): A notable portion of respondents rates the library's support for research needs as excellent. This suggests that a significant number of users find the library's resources and services highly beneficial for their research endeavors.

Very Good (27.8%): Another substantial percentage considers the library's support to be very good. This further reinforces the positive sentiment, indicating that a significant portion of users is satisfied with the level of assistance provided by the library for research purposes.

Good (33.5%): The majority of respondents rates the library's catering to research needs as good. This is a positive sign, as it suggests that a significant proportion of users find the library's resources and services to be effective and helpful for their research activities.

Average (9.7%): While a smaller percentage rates the library's support as average, the overall sentiment is still predominantly positive. However, it may be worth exploring the feedback from this group to identify specific areas that could be improved to better meet their research needs.

In summary, the feedback indicates that the library is generally successful in catering to the research needs of its users, with a majority expressing satisfaction. It would be beneficial for the library to continue gathering feedback and addressing any specific concerns raised by those who rated their experience as average, as this group may offer insights into potential areas for enhancement.

Q17 Is there a Wi-Fi facility on campus?

It appears that you've provided data related to the availability and satisfaction with Wi-Fi facilities on a campus. The numbers seem to represent both the overall satisfaction levels and the distribution of responses across different categories. Here's a breakdown:

Excellent: 15.3% (27 respondents)

Very Good: 26.7% (30 respondents)

Good: 18.5% (39 respondents)

Average: 22.2% (33 respondents)

Poor: 17% (Data for this category is not specified)

18: Are there canteen and parking facilities on the campus?

Based on the provided data, it seems like respondents were asked to rate the canteen and parking facilities on the campus using a scale ranging from "Excellent" to "Poor." Here is the breakdown of the responses:

Excellent: 12.5%

Very Good: 27.8%

Good: 28.4%

Average: 23%

Poor: 6.3%

Additionally, the count of responses for each category is as follows:

Excellent: 44

Very Good: 50

Good: 49

Average: 32

Poor: 11

From this information, it can be inferred that a significant portion of respondents rated the facilities positively, with "Very Good" and "Good" being the most common ratings. Only a small percentage of respondents gave a rating of "Poor."

19. Is there a sufficient hostel and mess provision?

It seems that the majority of respondents rated the hostel and mess provision as either 'Good' or 'Very Good,' with a combined percentage of 48.3%. Specifically:

'Very Good' received a 15.9% rating.

'Good' received the highest rating at 32.4%.

This suggests that a significant portion of the respondents find the hostel and mess provision to be satisfactory. However, it's worth noting that 15.3% of respondents rated it as "Excellent," while 27.8% rated it as "Average," and 8.8% rated it as "Poor." These lower ratings indicate that there is room for improvement and that a portion of the respondents may not be fully satisfied with the current provision.

In summary, while a substantial number of respondents find the hostel and mess provision to be good or very good, there is still a notable percentage of individuals who consider it average or poor. The institution will address any areas that need improvement to enhance overall satisfaction.

20. Is cleanliness maintained in restrooms?

It seems that the majority of respondents rated the cleanliness of the restrooms positively, with a combined percentage of 64.1% for "Excellent" and "Very Good" ratings. Here is a breakdown of the ratings:

Excellent: 8.3%

Very Good: 25.6%

Good: 30.1%

Average: 32.4%

Poor: 3.4%

If you combine the "Excellent" and "Very Good" ratings, you get a total of 34.1% + 25.6% = 64.1% of respondents who view the cleanliness of the restrooms positively. This suggests that a significant portion of the respondents find the cleanliness to be satisfactory. However, there is still a notable percentage (32.4%) who rated it as "Average," indicating room for improvement.

21. Is there enough space for carrying out sports and extra-curricular activities on campus?

It seems like the survey results indicate a generally positive perception of the space available for sports and extra-curricular activities on campus. Here's a breakdown of the responses:

25% of respondents rated the space as "Excellent."

29% of respondents rated it as "Very Good."

19.9% of respondents rated it as "Good."

18.2% of respondents rated it as "Average."

8% of respondents rated it as "Poor."

The majority of respondents (combined 83.9%) provided positive feedback, with ratings ranging from "Excellent" to "Good" and "Very Good." However, it's worth noting that there is still a portion (18.2%) who rated the space as "Average" or "Poor," indicating that there might be some room for improvement or differing opinions among the respondents. It could be helpful for the institution to further investigate and address any concerns raised by those who rated the space lower.

Dogra Law College organizes alumni meet

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, May 20. Dogra Law College organized an alumni meet at Muzaffer.

The objective of the event was to engage with alumni and re-connect them with their friends, seniors, juniors, mentors and faculty members.

The event began with an introduction by Himanshu Kishore, a postgraduate year student of BA LLB. Followed by presentation of singing by Prof. Durgam, Director DDC & CI to The. Gopal Singh Chopra, Chairman of Dogra Educational Trust and the lighting of traditional lamps by the dignitaries.

Speaking on the occasion, Gopal Singh Chopra said, "We at Dogra Law College are keen to provide all of our past students a platform to, say it, reach amongst them and also the spiritual in the vintage and modern ways of faculty members including the current teachers."

Prof. V.P. Mayana, Principal, Dogra Law College in welcome address applauded the achievements of the alumni in different spheres of life.

The alumni who shared their experiences were Vinod Naini, President D.L.C Alumni; Satish Dev, vice president; Rohit Sharma, president Young Lawyer Association; Gopalgali Bhargat and Alita Bhargat, P.O. I.R.C. and many others.

Dr. Suresh Dev Singh Chahal, Secretary, Dogra Educational Trust also spoke on the occasion. Around 40 Alumni from various batches participated in the alumni meet.

Vote of thanks was presented by Abhishek Sharma, Senior Faculty Member, Dogra Law College.

Action Taken Report of Alumni Meet

A meeting was held in the Principal office of Dogra Law College regarding Alumni Meet. The faculty who were present in the meeting were Principal Dogra law college Prof. V.P Magotra, Principal Incharge Ms. Shuchi Sharma, IQAC Coordinator Ms. Anushi Khajuria, Dr Aliya Malik (Convener Alumni Meet), Ms. Sumiksha Razdan, (Member Alumni Committee, Ms Manmeet Kour Bali(Member Alumni Committee).

And for the same Dogra Law College organized an Alumni meet 'Ek Mulaqat' on 20-05-2023 at Dogra law college auditorium.

The objective of the event was to engage with Alumni and reconnect them with their friends; seniors, juniors, mentors and faculty members. The event began with an introduction by Humera Firdous, a penultimate year student of BA LLB, followed by presentation of sapling by Prof. Darshana, Director, DGC & CD to Th. Gulchain Singh Charak G, Chairman of Dogra Educational Trust and the lighting of traditional lamps by the dignitaries. Speaking on the occasion, Thakur Gulchain Singh Charak G said, "We at Dogra Law College are keen to provide all of our past students a platform to stay in touch amongst them and also stay committed to the institute and students across different batches including the current batches." Prof. V.P Magotra, Principal, Dogra Law College in welcome address applauded the achievements of the alumni in different spheres of life. The alumni who shared their experiences were Vinod Saini, president DLC Alumni; Sachin Dev, vice president; Rohit Sharma, president Young Lawyer Association; Geetanjali Bhagat and Alisha Bhagat, POs J&K HC and many others. Dr. Samar Dev Singh Charak G, Secretary, Dogra Educational Trust also spoke on the occasion.

Around 40 Alumni from various batches participated in the Alumni meet. Feedbacks were collected from the Alumni and they suggested that in future such more programmes should be organised in the college so that Alumni can reconnect with their seniors, juniors and with their friends and also they can share their experiences with junior fellows.
