Subject : Opening of Legal Aid Clinic In Dogra Law College under II Phase of Access to Justice Project, Ministry of Law & Justice, Govt of India.

Sir,

It may be recalled that the subject matter was taken up with the District Legal Services Authority (DLSA), Samba to establish Legal Aid Clinic in Dogra College. The issue was taken up with DLSA, Samba after receiving telephonic communication from DLSA, Jammu that this issue will be dealt with by DLSA, Samba.

This issue has been discussed with you number of times but the matching efforts have been found lacking. Last week the faculty member who had earlier been deputed to discuss the issue with DLSA, Samba was asked to again visit Samba to follow the issue but he resisted and declined to proceed which shows the lack of interest in this important activity, which was discussed and conveyed to you.

The matter needs to be followed actively as such immediate action in the matter may be taken.

Legal Aid Clinic inaugurated in Dogra Law College

Member Secretary, JKSLSA, Mohammad Akram Chowdhary lighting ceremonial lamp.

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Member Secretary, J&K State Legal Services Authority, Mohammad Akram Chowdhary, on Tuesday inaugurated a Legal Aid Clinic at Dogra Law College.

The impressive inaugural ceremony was presided over by Gulchain Singh Charak, former Minister and Chairman, Dogra Educational Trust.

M.K Sharma, Chairman, District Legal Services Authority, Samba Swati Gupta, Secretary District Legal Services Authority, Samba, Samar Dev Singh Charak, Secretary, Dogra Educational Trust and Col. KN Padha Director, Admn and CD Dogra Educational Trust were also present.

The clinic will provide free legal aid and services to the needy and weaker sections of the society.

Legal Aid Clinia will serve two-fold purpose, by providing free legal services and legal advice and directing the energies of Law students in contributing towards social cause.

Mohammad Akram Chowdhary emphasised on the importance of legal aid to weaker sections in India and regarded it essential to all those who are not able to pay for legal services.

M.K Sharma while addressing the students stressed on the importance of Legal Aid Clinics for weaker sections of society. Such clinics also contribute in developing future civil right lawyers and activists, he added.

Gulchain Singh Charak, in his presidential address spoke about the importance of legal aid and thanked the District Legal Services Authority for opening the clinic in Dogra Law College.

Earlier Prof. V.P. Magootra, Principal Dogra Law College, accorded warm welcome to the dignitaries. He also spoke on the importance of setting up of the Legal Aid Clinic in College and assured the District Legal Services Authority, Samba that all assistance will be provided for smooth functioning of the clinic.

A list of Law volunteers has been prepared who along with faculty members shall associate themselves with the clinic which shall remain open during College time on all working days. The vote of thanks was presented by Gurkirat Kaur, a student of 6th Sem, LLB 3 years course. Vishal Dogra, a student of LLB 5 years-8th sem, anchored the whole event.

Visit To Lok Adalat At District Court Samba

NALSA along with other legal services institution conducts Lok Adalat. It is one of the alternative dispute resolution, mechanism it is a forum where disputes, cases pending in the court of law or at pre-litigation stages are settled, compromised amicably.

Legal services authority across the country under the aegis of national legal services authority and the leadership of Hon'ble Mr. Justice UU Lalit (executive chairman NALSA and Chief Justice of India designated) Organized 3rd National Lok Adalat of the year 2022 where in more than 74 lakhs cases were reported to settle, the total value of the settlement amount is approximately rupees 5 crore.

There was a visit organized by Dogra law college (Legal Aid Cell) in collaboration with District legal services authority Samba. It began with the inauguration ceremony by Miss Sonia Gupta (principle district session judge Samba). After which she explained the need and importance of Lok Adalat and also mentioned that this Lok Adalat also commemorates with Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav, after which the National Lok Adalat was declared open.

Lok Adalat at district court Samba was divided under 3 benches; so were students divided into three groups, each group was allotted a bench by our teacher in charge. I was allotted the bench number 1 (conference hall, ADR Samba) which consisted Miss Sonia Gupta (principle district and session judge, Samba), MS Rashi Varma (Additional Munsif Samba), Shri Ajay Gupta (panel lawyer, DALSA Samba.) This bench dealt with the MACT cases, Bank cases, pre-litigation matters and all the cases referred by district judge Samba. Bench also consisted Advocate Shashi Bhushan sir, along with the other penal lawyers who were keen enough to answer all the queries of the students about MACT cases and told about the historical Sarla Verma Judgment which gives the guidelines to calculate the compensation to be awarded in the various cases. We were also informed about the pre Lok Adalat sessions which wherein a huge amount of matrimonial disputes were already settled.

We were lucky enough to witness the negotiation between the standing council (representing PNB Ramgarh) & Mr. Sukwant followed by some cases like Joti Devi vs NIA which was settled at 15 lakh, Baby Sharma vs. National Insurance which was settled at 9 lakh.

Principal

Next we were taken to the ADR centre at district court Samba where secretary DALSA, Mr. Salahuddin Ahmed Sir delivered his lecture about legal services authority ;function and its importance and also highlighted the various methods under ADR mechanism, the discussion was not only restricted to this;
he also guided us about various fields of law after which a question answer session was held.

Total 1042 were taken up out of which 813 were settled at amount 1,96,85,8551.

Such visit to institution should be taken up regularly as they help in increasing the practical knowledge.
